Maintenance of Playgrounds. Editor The Washington Herald:

In the explanation that was given by Mr. Gardner, in the House Friday, for the cutting out of the appropriation for playgrounds, nothing whatever was said in reference to the appropriation for maintenance, the argument given applying only to the estimates for the acquisition of sites.

From the point of view of the Playgrounds Association, the most pressing item is the one for maintenance. Congress gave us last year $75,000, with which three sites have been purchased. In all there will be three more playgrounds to maintain this year than last, and practically nothing has been given to carry
